INDIANA DEMOCRATS

Hold Their State Convention at Indianapolis.

COMPLETE TICKET NOMINATED.

Delegates to the Chicago Convention Chosen Who Will Probably Vote for Ex-Governor Gray—Cleveland Gets a Resolution but Gray Gets the Ticket and the Votes—Other Political Points.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 22.—For governor, Claude Matthews; for lieutenant governor, Mortimer Nye; for secretary of state, Captain W. R. Myers. This is the head of the ticket—a ticket as long as a comet's tail that was placed in nomination yesterday by the representatives of the Democracy of the Hoosier state in convention assembled. It was a great day for Uncle Isaac P. Gray. "Cleveland gets a resolution, Gray gets the ticket and the votes," was the way a disgruntled delegate from the "pocket" section of the state summed up the doings of the convention yesterday evening, and he voiced the feeling of a goodly third of the gathering.

The forces of the old Indiana Democratic war horse were in full control, and the adherents of the ex-president were put to rout with less of a show of fighting to the end than had been anticipated. If there is a single man on the ticket who does not put ex-Governor Gray at the head of his list of political gods he has very cleverly succeeded in concealing his predilections.

The speculation as to the position of the national delegates on the presidential question is intensely interesting, and the claim to the majority is fiercely disputed. While the instructions of the state convention imply an obligation upon the Indiana delegation it is probable that a few will not obey them whichever way they may be given. If the delegation were uninstructed a politician who is capable of judging thinks it would be Cleveland 16 votes and Gray 14.

The instructions the delegates received are contained in the following resolutions:

RESOLVED, That this convention indorses the wise administration of Grover Cleveland; that the presidential campaign of 1892 should be conducted on the issue of tariff reform as defined in the presidential message of 1887; that upon this issue Mr. Cleveland is the logical candidate of the Democratic party.

RESOLVED, That the Democratic party of Indiana expresses its unalterable confidence in, and attachment to its gallant leader, Isaac P. Gray; that it holds him to be worthy of any honor in the gift of the American people, and that his name be presented to the convention by the delegation this day appointed, and in the event that the national convention deems the nomination of Mr. Cleveland inexpedient, the delegation is instructed to use every honorable effort to secure the nomination of ex-Governor Isaac P. Gray for the presidency.

The rest of the platform is devoted to state issues.

It required three ballots to dispose of the nomination for appellate judgeship of the Fifth district, George T. Ross, of Logansport, finally capturing the prize.

It was not until 4:30 that the great contest of the day, the gubernatorial nomination, was declared in order. Speeches were taboos and candidates were named. They were: John G. Shanklin, Mason, J. Niblack, Claude Matthews and Mortimer Nye. When the calling of the roll had been completed Matthews lacked less than 30 of the total number necessary to a choice, while Shanklin was nearly 200 in the rear. Allen county led off with a change of its vote to Matthews, and the Shanklin delegations proceeded to tumble over each other in their eagerness to get on the winning side. The chair ordered a second roll call, but at this juncture the names of all the opposing candidates were withdrawn and Matthews was declared the nominee by acclamation.

After Shanklin had made a speech declaring he would not sulk in his tent, nominations for lieutenant governor were next in order. Niblack, Nye and Samuel W. Axtell, of Green county, and Isaac B. McDonald, of Whitley county, were named. Two ballots were necessary to make the nomination, the contest being principally between Nye and McDonald, and the former finally won by 738 to 494. After this it was pretty smooth sailing. Captain W. R. Myers, of Anderson, was nominated for secretary of state by acclamation.

State Treasurer Albert Gall, Auditor J. O. Henderson, Attorney General Green Smith, Statistician William A. Peele, Superintendent of Public Instruction Harvey D. Voorries, were renominated by acclamation in a bunch. Sidney R. Moon was nominated for supreme court reporter. Senator Smith called attention to the fact that the Australian election law required the party to place a device at the head of its ticket, and suggested that a rooster would be an appropriate emblem. The idea was approved with a chorus of cock crows, the band burst out with "Auld Lang Syne," and at 6:15 after a continuous session of over eight hours, the convention was declared at an end.

People's Party in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., April 22.—The state central committee of the People's party met in Columbus yesterday and Aug. 17 was fixed as the date of the state convention. A committee was appointed to determine the place. The following delegates were elected to the national convention at Omaha July 4: John Seitz, of Tiffin; J. S. Borror, of Franklin county; Charles Jenkins, of Snodre; M. W. Williams, of Cincinnati; Hugh Cavanaugh, of Cincinnati; Hugo Preyer, of Cleveland; J. C. Cobb, of Wellston, and J. C. Morgridge, of Plain City.

No Opposition.

RICHMOND, Ind., April 22.—The Republicans of the Sixth Indiana district held their convention at Union City yesterday. Cor. resman Henry U. Johnson was renominated by acclamation. A big crowd was in attendance.

COST THREE LIVES.

An Iowa Man Gets Crazy Drunk and Commits a Horrible Crime.

DES MOINES, April 22.—James H. Cockerham last night went to the home of his divorced wife, Nancy, near this city, and fired through the window, instantly killing William T. Davis, her hired hand. He then pursued Mrs. Cockerham to the road and shot her dead, and reloaded his gun and blew his own head off.

Mrs. Cockerham secured a divorce from her husband last year on a showing of ten years of terrible cruelty, culminating in a desperate assault upon her in April, 1891, when he told her he was going to kill her and their daughter Louie, and commit suicide. He was drunk and the daughter then saved the mother's life by seizing his two revolvers and throwing them away. The couple had trouble all last summer about the seven-acre place which Cockerham owned, and Cockerham had recently threatened to kill her and his daughter, and also her lawyer, James H. Jones, of this city. Mrs. Cockerham was high tempered and a continual scold, but was undoubtedly a dutiful wife and innocent of improper intimacy with Davis. Cockerham was crazy drunk when he committed the awful crime.

FREE ONCE MORE.

The King of Bunco Steers Escapes His Sentence.

UTICA, N. Y., April 22.—Tom O'Brien, the king of bunco steers who was extradited from England and sentenced for ten years in Dannemora prison for fleeing an Albany man named Peck out of $10,000, escaped from Keeper Buck, of the Dannemora, some time Wednesday afternoon and is believed to be now on his way to Cuba where he will be safe.

O'Brien came here on a writ of habeas corpus issued under his affidavit that he wanted to argue the question of the right of the authorities to hold him in this country under conviction of a charge for which he was not extradited. The argument took place Wednesday, and Judge Cox decided against O'Brien and remanded him back to the prison. Instead of returning to Dannemora, Keeper Buck took O'Brien to Baggs' hotel and allowed him many liberties. During the day O'Brien disappeared and has not yet been apprehended.

RUSSIAN RELIEF.

Another Vessel Ready to Be Loaded with Food for the Starving.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Clara Barton, president of the American National Red Cross, has received from B. F. Tillinghast, of Iowa, her representative in New York, a charter for the British steamship Tynehead. The vessel is of 3,500 tons and will be loaded with Iowa grain forwarded to American National Red Cross in New York for shipment. It is expected that the Tynehead will sail about the 30th inst. for either Riga, Reval or St. Petersburg, as the Washington-Russian relief ship.

Dr. Hubbell, the American field agent of the Red Cross, is now in Rome representing the United States at the international conference of the Red Cross, and will be in Russia upon the arrival of the Tynehead to aid in the distribution of the cargo. A delegation representing the citizens of Washington and the Red Cross association will visit New York to supervise the decoration of the vessel and wish her Godspeed.

Tried to End Her Existence.

HAMILTON, O., April 22.—Mrs. John McDonough, of near Mand's station, this county, attempted to take her own life last night about 8 o'clock. She swallowed a large dose of strychnine and got too much of the drug. It acted as an emetic and saved her life. Her condition was almost immediately discovered and doctors worked hard with her. This morning she was out of danger. Mrs. McDonough has had the support of a worthless husband and a number of small children on her hands for some time, and got tired of life, so she tried to end it in this manner. The family lives on the farm of Riley Talbot, near Mand.

Horrible Sight to Witness.

SULLIVAN, Ind., April 22.—Joseph E. Walters, of Paxton, a small town on the Evansville and Terre Haute railroad, committed suicide last evening by shooting himself through the head. He had been out in the yard shooting birds. Suddenly he went into the house where his wife and father were sitting, and said: "If you want to see me in life, look quick." In an instant his revolver went to his head, and he fired, the ball going through his head and striking the door panel. Temporary insanity is supposed to be the cause.

Man Mysteriously Missing.

COLUMBUS, O., April 22.—Lincoln Fritter, secretary of the Thurman club, of this city, and associated with the law firm of Nash & Lentz, has been mysteriously missing since April 11 and his associates fear that he has been foully dealt with, as he had on his person sufficient money and valuables to make him a desirable victim. He was last seen at Newark. Nothing is wrong in his accounts. Some think, however, that he has purposely left for parts unknown.

Getting Their Money.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., April 22.—The Muncy bank depositors have received their money at last. Receiver Collins has received from Washington and paid out checks to the extent of $70,000, the depositors whose claims were fully established receiving dollar for dollar. There remains to be paid out also about $10,000 on claims of fifty persons whose accounts have not yet been fully straightened out.

CONTINUES TO QUAKE.

Another Earthquake Shock Felt Over the Same Californian Territory.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Slight earthquake shock visited San Francisco at 9:48 Thursday morning. The vibrations were from north to south, lasting twenty seconds. The disturbance was felt at Sacramento, Biggs, and at other points.

A dispatch from Woodland says a heavy shock was felt there at the same time. Several buildings were severely damaged. The people were badly frightened and business has been partially suspended. Sacramento also reports the shock as being severe there, it lasting nine seconds. Many buildings were cracked, chimneys were shaken down and glass doors and windows were badly shattered.

At Reparto, near here, the earthquake shock was of shorter duration, but much severer than that of Tuesday. The brick building occupied by A. M. Schute, a blacksmith, collapsed and his son George was buried in the ruins. He was rescued, but his left leg is fractured below the knee and his lower jaw broken. He is in a very critical condition. Levy & Schwab's general merchandise store is a total wreck. Porches are down, fire walls are caved in and the stock of goods is in a deplorable condition. Mrs. Davison was in the store at the time of the shock and, in attempting to make her escape, she was struck by a falling brick and severely bruised about the head and face. The east and west walls of the Barnes hotel are in ruins and it is doubtful if the other two walls can be saved. There is not a chimney left standing in the town.

Dispatches show that this last seismic disturbance was confined to the section visited by the shocks of Tuesday and Wednesday. At Maxwell it lasted thirty seconds. The people there were scared out of their homes and are afraid to venture in again.

At Winters.

WINTERS, Cal., April 22.—Another earthquake occurred here at 9:40 yesterday morning, throwing down Masonic hall, Chadwick's building, Berthol's two-story stone building, Humphrey Brothers' one-story stone building, and generally demolishing goods, fixtures, etc. One man was badly hurt by a falling wall, and others were more or less injured. Business is entirely suspended and Main street is a scene of desolation. Fire in the rear of a restaurant was quickly extinguished. J. Delvilbiss' house, one mile west of here, is a total wreck as is also Baker's adobe house and J. R. Vofskil's stone dwelling. Wyatt's drug store is a complete wreck. Frank Wyatt's stock of tailoring goods is covered up by a pile of brick. Nick Darby, a dishwasher in a restaurant, was injured fatally by a falling wall.

At Vacaville.

VACAVILLE, Cal., April 22.—About 9:45 yesterday morning a severe shock of earthquake again visited this place. Many buildings that were damaged by the earthquake of the 19th, are about to topple over at any moment, and many of the citizens having suspended business, being afraid to venture inside of their buildings. No damage was done by this last shock.

SLAIN WITH A STONE.

Officer Donnelly's Murderer Captured at Dayton.

DAYTON, O., April 22.—John Gard, wanted for killing Peace Officer William Donnelly, of this city, was arrested at his father's house here Thursday morning. Officer Donnelly was trying to arrest Gard and two other toughs who were drunk and raising a disturbance on the street a month ago. Gard threw a stone, striking the officer on the breast, prostrating him. The officer was conducted to his home, suffering until he died last week, and was buried April 18. Gard has been in hiding, and officers traced him to an aunt's house in Miamisburg Wednesday.

Gard walked to Dayton at 2 o'clock Thursday morning, and was at his father's house preparing to leave with his wife Friday. A detail of policemen surrounded the house and found Gard hiding behind the headboard of a bed. He was at once taken to the city prison and the charge of murder placed against him. The new police board and Chief Daniels are being congratulated for successful working up of the case. The coroner's post-mortem showed conclusively that Officer Donnelly's death was the direct result of the blow inflicted by John Gard.

NOTHING DEFINITE.

Several Reports of Killings in the Newly Opened Country.

GUTHRIE, O. T., April 22.—There are several reports in circulation about killings in the new country, but most of them are unreliable. One is to the effect that a party of "sooners" in a ravine in County G were attacked by settlers and a half dozen or more on each side shot, most of them fatally.

Another report has it that in a conflict between the two factions at Teuola, county seat of H county, eleven men were wounded and several killed. Both points are fifty miles from a railway, and the reports are all indefinite and second hand, therefore little credence is given them here. The only authentic report is that of the killing of two men, west of El Reno. Both were found dead with bullets holes in their bodies, but it is not known who did the killing.

Fatal Fight Among Farmers.

HENDERSON, Ky., April 22.—A fatal encounter took place yesterday afternoon some miles from here, in which two men were killed and others maimed. Bad blood existed between several farmers, which led to a roadside fight. Joseph McCallister and John Rooney were shot dead, and a negro named Jim Kinchler was so badly injured he will die.

TEN MEN IN THE MINE

Extent of the Lytle Colliery Disaster.

NO HOPE OF THEIR BEING ALIVE.

The Water in the Mine Being Rapidly Pumped Out but the Imprisoned Miners Have Undoubtedly Been Drowned. Names of the Victims—Story Told by One of the Rescued Men.

MINERSVILLE, Pa., April 22.—There are ten men still in the Lytle Coal company's colliery, all of whom are supposed to be drowned. The names of the unfortunate men are: Thomas Buggy and John Zerby, both miners, engaged in timbering, Albert Sabell, contractor, and his gang of laborers named Joseph Fiella, Ignatz Perena, Peter Oloetsi, Vincent Mercuro, Frank Vegetta, Peter Maketto and Dominic Uguilla. They were engaged in driving a gangway in the lowest part of the mine. Zerby is married and has several children. Buggy is the son of a widowed mother and was her only support.

Several immense pumps, each lifting 1,000,000 gallons a day, are rapidly lowering the water in the mine. Up to the present time nothing has been heard of the eight Italians and two Americans, who are undoubtedly drowned. It is not expected that the bodies will be reached for at least twenty-four hours yet.

The following is the story told by William Bell, who was the first man rescued. "It was my second day's work in the place. My butt was Thomas Buggy, and we were at the time on our way out of the workings. We heard William Adams, the boss, calling out that the water was coming and to run for our lives. The noise of the rushing water was like that of distant thunder. I didn't know whether my butt was behind me, or whether he had been overtaken and drowned. Our lights were both extinguished and we were at the mercy of the mad rush in a dark dungeon. When the excitement was over, I found myself on the saddle several feet above the water.

"This was about three minutes after the alarm and I felt that my rescue was not sure yet. I could hear the waters rushing below me and this was my fear of danger. I did not know what became of Buggy until after my rescue; was there but a short time when I began to rap. Shortly afterwards I heard rappings as if some one was drilling a hole. I surmised that my signal was heard and that parties were striving to cut a hole through a solid rock to reach me. Several shots were fired and I continued rapping every now and then. I never faltered, but kept my presence of mind throughout. The water began to recede after several hours and work ceased at the hole. It was then but a half hour before the heroic band of rescuers headed by Inside Foreman William Adams, my brother David, John Jenkins and my brother-in-law, John Schapp, and a Hungarian, whose name I do not know, came to my relief. I was about twenty-five feet from the air shaft. I heard Bolbin call and I answered him. It was about half past 10 when I reached the surface."

EXPLAINED AT LAST.

A Story of Love, Desertion, Elopement and Forgiveness.

VAN WERT, O., April 22.—The people of Dixon, this county, are greatly interested in the explanation of a sensation of many years ago. In 1870 Thomas Williams, who was the school teacher at Dixon, married Miss Johnson, the belle of the neighborhood. Williams was an ex-soldier and very popular. Three children had been born to them, the eldest, a boy of seven, when in 1878 Williams and this son disappeared. They were at first supposed to have been drowned. Later a younger sister of Mrs. Williams, Emma, disappeared, and it soon became noised about that Williams had gone west where Miss Johnson had joined him, though nothing was ever heard of them. In time Mrs. Williams secured a divorce and married Dr. Lowden, but died in a year. Two other children, both girls, by the first marriage, were then taken to the Shingle springs, California, by their grandmother, Mrs. Johnson, where they resided several years, going afterward to Oakland, just opposite San Francisco. The girls finally went to reside with an aunt, a Mrs. Richmond, at 1313 East Eleventh street, San Francisco. They assumed her name. The family and its tragedy had almost been forgotten when a month ago a letter was received at Dixon inquiring for the Johnson family. The writer said she was Emma Johnson and had eloped with her brother-in-law and had gone to Boone, Boone county, where Mr. Williams became a prominent citizen, holding important offices and amassing wealth. The woman said that during his life she had not been allowed to write home, but now that he was dead, she desired information of her family. She asked forgiveness, saying she was a mere child when she went and was too young to realize what she was doing. The letter stated she had seven children, the eldest being the boy Williams took with him. The erring woman's mother, at Oakland, was written to and a correspondence followed, which has resulted in the long-lost brother starting for California to join his sisters, whom he had entirely forgotten. Mrs. Johnson will forgive her daughter and make her home with her in the future at Boone.

Confessed His Guilt.

NEW YORK, April 22.—James A. Palmer, a manufacturer of gas fixtures, was arrested yesterday, charged with robbing Tiffany & Company of $50,000 by means of forged and fraudulent bills. Palmer has confessed his guilt.

TWENTY-ONE of the twenty-six district

"If hypocrisy is the homage vice pays homage prohibitory protection pays to genuine tariff reform."—Grove Cleveland.

ALTHOUGH the Oregon delegation to the Chicago convention is uninstructed, yet it is said every member of it is for Cleveland first, last and all the time.
The Kansas delegation likewise favor him.

JOHN E. MILHOLLAND, Chief Inspector of the Immigration Bureau, promised to "fix" a certain New York Republican who opposes President Harrison, but he failed to do so, and Secretary Foster telegraphed him reminding him of his broken promise, and demanding his resignation.
Harrison and his Secretary are great on civil service reformers.

SENATOR GEORGE's little bill to pension
ex-Confederates is sleeping the sleep that knows no waking. The ex-Confederates hereabouts seem to be faring very well without any pensions. But few of them were crippled, and most all of them are enjoying remarkably robust health. But the poor fellows who "fit" on the other side—well Uncle Sam is helping to support most of 'em.

GOVERNOR BROWN appointed two Republicans World's Fair Commissioners on Monday. Wednesday our esteemed contemned contemporary was wondering if the Governor could be induced to give a Republican an office. One of the appointees referred to is Chairman of the State Committee of his party and one of the best men in Kentucky, but our neighbor does not seem to have any words of praise for him. Why this silence?

STATISTICS from the Census Bureau show that in ten counties in Ohio the number of renters of farms increased over one-half from 1880 to 1890. Don't you see how the Republican high tariff helps the farmers? It's fast making renters of them instead of landfords.
These ten counties were selected at random. In one county in the State seventy-eight per cent. of the families are renters,
and only twenty-two per cent. land owners. And yet we are told day after day that protection gives the farmers a home market, and that a high tariff is about all he needs to make him prosperous and happy.

THE State Board of Equalization left the assessment of forty-eight counties just as it was reported by the Assessors; and the assessment of seventy-one counties was either raised or lowered. The Board aimed to fix the assessment at 70 per cent. of the actual cash valuation. The transfers of real estate in the various counties were taken as a basis, and the Board endeavored, systematically, to equalize the assessments throughout the State and make the assessed value 70 per cent. of the actual value. All this talk made by Republican editors that the Board's aim was to compel the people to pay more taxes into the State Treasury is on a line with the arguments of a shyster lawyer, unworthy of a moment's consideration. These Republican editors are talking for political effect—that's sticking out all through their rantings.

THE Legislature two years ago amended the Pauper Idiot law so as to compel the various counties to pay $20 of the annual allowance of $75 for the support of such unfortunates, and the amendment was so worded that the counties had to pay their portion before the idiot was entitled to any part of the sum due from the State. It has been demonstrated beyond a doubt that the change was a wise one. It has put a check on these claims. The number has fallen off considerably in many of the mountain counties where it was thought frauds had been practiced for years upon the State Treasury.

The present members of the Legislature from these very counties are trying to have the amendment repealed and the old system readopted. The proposition should be killed. If any county is too stingy to help support its pauper idiots,
it should not be allowed to raid the State
Treasury.

THE editor of the BULLETIN begs permission to inform the editor of the Owensboro Inquirer that the Mayeville correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer is no liar. We have had a very intimate personal acquaintance with this correspondent for about thirty-six years and know whereof we speak. He has no desire to pose as a disciple of Joe Mulhat-ton. We admit that the special in regard to Mr. Joel Laytham's horse sounded somewhat Mulhattonish, but we have no reason to doubt Mr. Laytham's word.
He is a gentleman of unquestioned veracity. The horse was under that hay-rick eight days, and came out sound and well,
but a little thirsty and in fine trim to enjoy a meal of fresh grass.

SENATOR POYNTZ RESIGNS

In Order to Prepare For His Duties as Railroad Commissioner—His Successor.

Hon. Charles B. Poyntz tendered his resignation yesterday as State Senator from Mason and Lewis counties. It was his intention to remain in the Senate until about the first of May, but someone introduced a bill to increase the salary of the Railroad Commissioners from $2,000 to $3,000. Mr. Poyntz would be directly affected by this measure, and he thought proper to resign. He came to this conclusion yesterday, and at once sent a brief note to Lieutenant Governor Alford, President of the Senate, to that effect. In addition to the reason assigned above, Mr. Poyntz has some business matters here at home to get in shape before he enters upon his duties as Railroad Commissioner. The Frankfort correspondent of the Kentucky Post says his brother members and everybody else in Frankfort regretted to see the popular young Senator vacate his seat.

There is a great deal of speculation as to Mr. Poyntz's successor. Mr. T. B.
Harrison, of Vanceburg, was the first one suggested, but since then others have been named, among them Mr. R. D. Wilson and Judge Garland, also of Vanceburg, and Judge Wall and ex-Senator
Worthington, of this city.

Judge Whitaker and A. P. Gooding,

Art and Musical Entertainment.

At the opera house to-night Professor Ozier will present Ireland in her natural beauty, in her past glorious history, and her present miserable blight. The subject, the theme of poets, the inspiration of artists and the home of genius and wit, ever appeals to the world with charming power of interest. Ireland appeals to all by the gospel her apostles have preached to the nations, by the learning of her schools and sanctity of her teachers, by her fervent lovers of liberty, dying in ditches, suffering famine, desolation and death for their country and their homes. Ireland appeals to the world in the bravery of her soldiers who are inscribed on Fame's great scroll from Fontenoy to Fredericksburg. Her cause and sufferings have enlisted the great old man Gladstone, who now unfolds her banner about his maturer years to advocate her liberation and place her in the ranks of nations. So famous a country, so celebrated a theme will have adequate and fitting presentation at the Professor's hands to-night, and to all who enjoy art
and music attendance at the performances will bring delight and satisfaction.
Reserved seats 35 cents, secured at Nelson's. General admission 25 cents. Complete change of program to-night. The drill squad in new evolutions; new music by the troubadours. Moonlight on the lakes, the silver chimes of Shannon Cathedral and an excellent troupe of talented artists.

Old Times Recalled.

Editor Bulletin—Dear Sir: I see by the EVENING
BULLETIN sent me some days ago that in tearing down my father's old mansion, there was a brick found with the name of "Wm. E. La Poire, May May 11th, 1819," inscribed on it. I have no recollection of any one of that name in my boyhood days about Maysville. The brick was made in New Town, now the Fifth ward. My recollection is that Jas. Porter was the manufacturer. Probably one of his laborers wrote the inscription.
Mr. Porter, afterwards ran the brewery on the N. E. corner of Fourth and Limestone streets, for many years. After that, Bob Brotherton took charge of it. I don't remember the mason who built the old mansion, but the carpenters are fresh in my memory. Amos and Billie Corwine, Ralph Jenkins and Charley Givens were all engaged on the building.

Well, the old home is no more and I alone am the only one of the old family left. I spent many happy days in that old home. Several of my children were born there—one of whom I am now boarding with having passed her fifty-fourth year. Yours truly,
D. SPALDING.

Louisville, April 18th, '92.
A certain gentleman of this city who is well posted on the Maysville of former days thinks the name on the brick referred to is intended for that of "Judge" Sipold. Sipold was a brick maker and was in business here about the date mentioned.

Mr. McAtee's Sale Postponed.

On account of my stock being out of condition I will not hold my sale on April 23rd. It will take place the latter part of May. A. B. MCATEE.

MT. OLIVET, ROBERTSON COUNTY.

Irvin Wells and John McDowell are in the city.
Judge Deming was in Maysville this week as attorney for defendant in the case against Lewis Thompson.

Hon. Winfield Buckler has returned from Carlisle, where he was summoned to attend the beside of his dying sister, Mrs. Allie Secrests.

County Court was poorly attended. Usually April courts are the best attended, but Monday
being so unfavorable persons from a distance failed to come.

A stallion exhibition was given on our streets court day, and no little "racing" and "reckless driving" indulged in. Our Police Court will look after the entry fees, which at the time were not paid.

At the meeting of the City Council Monday night, this week, Judge Charles Morford, recently of Carlisle, presented his bond, which was accepted, and he qualified as Police Judge. Robert Buckler was re-elected City Attorney for one year.

A gentleman in these parts, who recently won a creditable prominence while at the Republican State convention at Louisville, was philosophically reasoning a few days ago, and expressing his ideas of the power of money, said:
"Monetary considerations have a great deal to do with things in generalization."

Criminal Court convened Monday, Judge Perkins on the bench. After a lengthy instruction to the grand jury they retired to their room and made their final report on the following day.
Court adjourned Tuesday at noon, not a single case having been tried. This undoubtedly shows a healthy condition of affairs in our county, but a miserable showing for our lawyers.

W. W. Kimbrough, of Cynthiana, and Thomas
Owens, of Carlisle, candidates for honors in this Judicial circuit, were here this week "shaking."
In no spirit of disparagement to the claims and ambitions of the honorable gentlemen respectively, we incidentally, yet unqualifiedly, say that the Democratic voters of our county are a unit
in their support of the next Judge for this district—Hon. Winfield Buckler.

An Expert's Opinion on Fuel Gas.

A Chicago chemist says that the Harris fuel gas manufactured here in Maysville at a cost of one and a fraction cents
a thousand feet, is better in quality than Chicago fuel gas manufactured at a cost of eighteen cents a thousand. Besides,
the plant in Maysville cost only $10,000,
while the Chicago plant cost over $100,000.

Binder Twine.

Thompson & McAtee are to-day in receipt of a car load of binder twine which they purchased last fall before the combine and advancement of prices. They are willing to give the farmer the benefit and low price at which they bought.
Call and see them before you purchase.

BALLENGER, the jeweler, has secured more commodious quarters just east of Mitchell, Finch & Co.'s Bank, and will move into the new store soon. In the meantime you can secure anything in the jewelry line at his old stand.

MR. FRANK McCLANAHAN, of the firm of McClanahan & Shea, had a narrow escape this morning. He was at work on the roof of Mr. D. Daulton's new house in the Fifth ward when he made a misstep and landed in the cellar. Luckily he struck in two feet of water, and that fact no doubt saved his life. The fall stunned him somewhat, but he had presence of mind left to keep his head above
the water until he recovered and got out.
His injuries are not serious, and he was soon able to resume work.

WE REFER TO

OUR SPRING SUITS

Were we not so exceedingly modest we would tell you of hundreds of compliments from home and abroad showered upon us and our truly incomparable TAILOR-MADE, CUSTOM-LIKE SUITS. We show more styles, colors and designs than any other house in the State, and it is an acknowledged fact that good dressers come miles and miles to be fitted out by us. Scarcely a mail that we do not receive orders from distant places for sample garments. The cause is obvious. We endeavor to please our patrons; in fact we absolutely but mildly compel you to buy our goods. We know your taste, and the satisfaction you derive by coming to us and letting us make selections for you, which in every instance proves satisfactory, is the prime cause of our success in business. This season we were peculiarly fortunate in the selection of our stock. We obtained the best things from the best houses, and a glance through our stock will convince you of the justness of our claim that we have the greatest stock of Clothing in the State.

MAYSVILLE CARRIAGE COMPANY.

The Large Addition to Its Factory About Completed—Encouraging Outlook.

The large three-story brick addition to the Maysville Carriage Company's factory is completed with the exception of the ground flooring. The contractors are at work on this, and will soon have it finished. A bedding of six inches of cinders is being put down and on this a flooring of two-inch oak will be laid, the intention being to make it as solid and substantial as possible.

The addition is sixty-four feet square, and is just south of and adjoining the rest of the establishment. It has an entrance from Grave alley, in addition to the doors connecting it with the old shops.

The company's buildings now consist of the new three-story, a two-story thirty by seventy-five feet, a shed twenty by seventy feet, and a wood and smith shop twenty-four by sixty-six feet in size. This gives ample room for the company's large business.

The wood and blacksmith shops will be located on the first floor of the new building. In the northeast corner of the second floor is the trimming room, and in the southeast corner is the varnish room, each twenty-four by thirty-two feet. These rooms are so located that dust from the streets will not reach them and interfere with the varnishing and finishing. On the southwest corner of this floor is the wash platform, so arranged that all the water used in cleaning vehicles brought in for repair is carried directly into a sewer. The rest of the second floor will be used for storage purposes. The entire third floor will be used by the painters and for the storage of the vehicles on which they are at work.

Messrs. Myall, Shackleford & Kemper, the members of the company, are highly encouraged over their prospects for business. The demand for their vehicles is increasing steadily. In the past few days orders for buggies have been received from Flemingsburg, from Moorefield, from Bourbon County, from Lexington, and even from Nashville, Tenn. The company have no finished stock of their own make on hand now that is not already sold. They do not expect to manufacture much for the trade before next fall, as they have a great deal of other work to do. They have orders now on hand for repairing forty buggies and other vehicles.

Messrs. Lane & Worick did the carpenter work of the new building. Mr. John Moran built the foundation, the brick work was done by Messrs. Clinger & Son, the painting by Mr. John Carnahan, and the roofing and spouting by Messrs. Bierbower & Co. Messrs. Lane & Worick were the contractors and the others subcontractors.

The success the new company is already meeting with should encourage other Maysville people to invest in industrial enterprises.

Another Maysvillian Highly Honored.

The Maysvillian always goes to the front. Mr. James H. Martin, son of Mrs. Mary F. Martin, of Forest avenue, was recently chosen class orator at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, out of a class of 260 students. He is also one of five members of this class whose general average in the final examinations was over ninety-five in a possible one hundred. Mr. Martin received his diploma last night, and will arrive home in a few days. His many friends will be glad to learn of his successful graduation.

RIPLEY's cannery factory is looming up. The Bee says it will be a mammoth structure.

MR. A. B. COCHRAN, formerly of Maysville, is located now at Denver, and is doing well.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES BUTLER are entertaining a ten-pound daughter at their home on East Fifth street.

MR. JOHN KACKLEY has accepted a situation at Miner's shoe store, and will take pleasure in waiting on his friends.

NEW beans, peas, ripe tomatoes, new potatoes, home grown asparagus and everything good to eat at Hill & Co.'s.

MARGARET LYTLE, an old lady of Augusta, was found dead in bed Tuesday. Heart disease is attributed as the cause of her death.

THE Lexington Gazette is a not satisfied with kicking out the quacks; it wants also to empty the patent medicines into the gutter, and to prohibit their sale.

THERE will be a meeting at Lexington June 15 and 16, to organize a Theological Institute for the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

MISS MARY ARMSTRONG made her public debut as a singer with the rendering of a charming soprano solo at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday evening.—Ripley Bee.

MRS. REID's class in elocution and physical culture meet in the lecture room of the Christian Church. She is a successful teacher and comes highly recommended.

ATTORNEY GENERAL HENDRICK has given a written opinion that telegraph companies are required "to list their property in the several counties, for taxation, as in the case of natural persons or corporations owning tangible property."

CONSTABLE DAWSON this morning arrested Alex Greenwood, aged about sixteen, a grandson of Mrs. Polly Clinger of Sixth ward, on a charge of stealing $20 from her. His trial is set for next Monday at 10 a. m. before Squire Grant.

MR. HARRY STEVENSON, formerly a salesman at the Oddfellows' Hall Clothing House, left this week for Waco, Texas, where he has decided to locate permanently. He is a young man of excellent habits and splendid business qualifications.

J. R. BASCOM has removed from Bath County, and now has the Kenmore Stock Farm near Lexington. He has over forty head of trotters, among them Vasco and Valissa. Vasco is the only sire in the world of his age with two below 2:20—Ed Rosewater 2:16½, and Valissa 2:19.

A CAR-LOAD of cattle was in the C. and O. freight side-tracked on Front street yesterday on account of the landslide at Springdale. They were being taken to Richmond, Va. The railroad company had them turned out in the pens at the round house last night to give them a rest.

MR. LYNE HERNDON, of Louisville, is in town, and gave the BULLETIN the details of a narrow escape he had last Tuesday, in West Virginia. He was making a trip to Hamlin, the county seat of Lincoln County, and attempted to ford Buffalo Creek, a branch of the Guyan, when his horses began to plunge. One of them soon got foul of the buggy pole and was drowned. The colored driver jumped out and attempted to free the animal, but was carried down the stream by the swift current. Mr. Herndon finally got ashore, none the worse for the exciting times and narrow escape.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Four Indictments Reported By the Grand Jury—Fines Assessed. Other Matters.

Con Guilfoyle, of Mayslick, was convicted of Sabbath breaking and fined $25 and costs. He was also found guilty of selling liquor to a minor and fined $50 and costs. On an indictment against him for keeping a disorderly house, the jury found him not guilty. One other indictment against him was dismissed on a plea of former conviction, and one other was filed away.

Pete Fulton, of Mayslick, was convicted of selling liquor to a minor and given a fine of $50 and costs.

The grand jury reported four indictments. Night Watchman William Driscoll was indicted for wilfully and maliciously shooting and wounding Deputy Marshal Mangan with intent to kill. U. P. Degman was indicted for assaulting and beating John West. West was indicted for carrying a deadly weapon concealed, and George Clark was indicted for grand larceny.

The case against George Clark was set for trial next Saturday. Clark is accused of stealing half a beef from Wood Bros.

The grand jury failed to indict Carrie Payne, colored, who was held over not long since on a charge of perjury. She is one of the women who figured in the Travis murder case. The failure to indict her for perjury will likely be the last of this case.

Jefferson Williams was granted a divorce from Kate Williams.

In the case of Wm. Riggs against W. W. Ball and others to recover an interest in some land in the Sixth ward, a motion to strike out certain words in defendants' answer is pending. The BULLETIN recently gave the principal points in the claim Mr. Riggs sets up.

SOME of the young ladies of this city will give a leap year party in the Maysville Carriage Company's new building to-night. The third floor will be utilized by the dancers.

THE delegates and friends of the Travelers' Protective Association of America have selected the C. and O. as their route to attend their national convention at Old Point Comfort.

MR. STANLEY LEE and family have reconsidered their contemplated removal to Charleston, West Va., and will remain citizens of Maysville. This will be gratifying news to their many friends.

MISS ELLA CHILDE will be married soon at Wyoming, near Cincinnati, to Mr. Henry Hardie, of Hermitage, Tenn. The bride to be is a daughter of Colonel C. B. Childe, the well known railroad man. She spent several months in this city a few years ago.

THE Frank Owens Hardware Company has been awarded the contract for sixty-three tons of forty-pound steel rails for the extension of the electric railroad to the fair grounds. This old and popular house has furnished all the rails used on the street railroad in this city, having received every contract to date. It is the intention to complete the extension by July 1, if possible. Work will be commenced as soon as the timber for the trestling is received.

THE Frankfort correspondent of the Courier-Journal says that under the Revisory Commission bill, which will no doubt be adopted by the General Assembly, the Railroad Commissioners, in addition to assessing railroads, will have to assess banks, turnpikes and all private corporations. All told, they will assess about $125,000,000 of property, or about one-fourth that of the entire State. This will cut off from $50,000 to $60,000 of the amount now paid the County Assessors, and will consequently save that amount to the State.

Tenement House Fire in St. Petersburg.

NINE PEOPLE BURNED TO DEATH

Fifteen Others Missing and Have Probably Perished in the Burned Building. Destructive Storm in Austria—More Work of Anarchists—Other Dispatches Detailing Foreign Events.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 22.—The burning of a three-story tenement house last night, in the most crowded part of the city, caused the loss of a number of lives. The fire appears to have gained considerable headway before the people in the building were aware of their danger. The house was thronged with tenants, and, when they became aroused to their peril, exit from the upper floors was already cut off by the flames.

As in most Russian tenement houses the staircases were narrow, and the windows very small. Many of the inmates ran to the windows and there was a struggle to get out, causing those who were behind to be smothered by the smoke or caught in the flames. Of those who succeeded in leaping to the ground, several were killed or seriously injured. By the time the firemen reached the scene the building was beyond saving.

The building was gutted, and when a search was made of the ruins it was found that nine of the occupants had been burned to death. Their bodies were almost unrecognizable. Fifteen others are missing, and it is thought that they are buried beneath the debris. The scene about the destroyed building is most pathetic. The relatives of those missing stand helplessly about crying and wringing their hands and refuse all consolation. The search for the remaining bodies is progressing.

No One to Blame.

LONDON, April 22.—The inquest over the victims of the terrible accident at Hampstead railway station, on Monday evening, disproved the report that the gate at the foot of the stairway leading to the platforms was closed at the time of the crash. It was shown, however, that the railway officials had no regular way of managing the crowd, and that the panic was due in a large part to the lack of proper provision for an extraordinary throng of excursionists. It was shown that the deaths were caused by suffocation. The inquest was adjourned until Tuesday next.

Death of a Duchess.

BERLIN, April 22.—The death of the Grand Duchess Mecklenburg-Schwerin, the favorite sister of Emperor William I, was announced yesterday afternoon. She was stricken suddenly with paralysis as she sat in her chair, and died without uttering an intelligible word. For some time she had been an acute sufferer from heart disease and lung troubles, and recently had been severely afflicted with neuralgia. She was eighty-nine years old.

Anarchists' Threat.

PARIS, April 22.—Anarchists have sent the following letter to Ravachol: "You may be condemned, but your death shall be avenged on the very day of your execution. The infamous Deibler and his assistants shall pay with their lives for taking yours. We shall be present with bombs in our pockets and we will blow up the guillotine."

Police Threaten to Strike.

PARIS, April 22.—The Dix Neuvieme Siecle says the police threaten to strike on May Day unless their wages are increased. The paper publishes a proclamation of their grievances. The matter causes some fears of trouble from the anarchists, but the government will use the military to protect the public if the police refuse to do their duty.

British Settlement Threatened.

LONDON, April 22.—Advices from British West Africa report that the Jebu and Egba tribes have interrupted trade with the interior and threaten to attack Lagos and other British settlements on the gold coast. A force of friendly natives, under British officers, has been sent to protect Lagos.

Opposed to Spain's Tariff.

LONDON, April 22.—It is announced that the representatives of England, Sweden and Norway have suspended negotiations for commercial treaties with Spain, pending further orders. This action is the result of Spain's rigid adherence to a highly protective tariff.

Destructive Storm in Austria.

VIENNA, April 22.—There was a terrible storm at Trent yesterday evening shortly after sundown. The roof of the barracks was blown off, and two soldiers and four civilians were killed.

THREATENED STRIKE.

Fifteen Hundred Men Ask for an Increase of Wages.

NEW HAVEN, April 22.—Fifteen hundred quarrymen, employed at Stony Creek, threaten to go out on a strike unless their demands are acceded to. They have been paid twenty cents an hour for nine hours a day, and now they ask that the companies pay them twenty-three cents an hour, nine hours to constitute a day's work and eight hours on Saturday.

A few days ago the men notified the owners of the quarries that unless their demands were acceded to they would go out on May 2. The owners claim that the demand is outrageous, and declare that they will not pay it. The men have been threatening to strike for some time, and it is very probable that they will be allowed to do so. There are employed in these quarries beside the 1,500 quarrymen 200 stone cutters, who will be thrown out of work.

Two on One Gallows.

NASHVILLE, Ill., April 22.—Two negroes, Buck Dickerson and Tom Davis, who were found guilty in Judge Wall's court Wednesday of the murder of Marcus Deitch, a Jew peddler, at Rich View last December, were sentenced Thursday morning to be hanged.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

The Chinese Question in the Senate and Election Contest in the House.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The Chinese question proved as irrepressible as the silver question in the senate, notwithstanding the opinion of the foreign relations committee that existing laws remain in force till 1894. A general Chinese debate, characterized by a vigorous onslaught upon the Geary house bill by Mr. Sherman, was entered upon and remains the unfinished business. An ineffectual attempt was made to arrive at an agreement to take a vote on the question at 5 o'clock this evening. Some rather pointed references were made in the debate to senators who now denounced violation of treaty stipulations, but who did not themselves oppose the Scott exclusion law of 1888.

The Rockwell-Noyes contested election case occupied the entire time of the house yesterday, the debate being exceedingly dry and but little attention was paid to it. The majority of the members occupied their time in chatting and smoking in the foyer and cloak rooms, and Mr. DeForest, Democrat, of Connecticut; Mr. Hagen, Republican, of Wisconsin, and Mr. Chipman, Democrat, of Michigan, spoke in favor of Mr. Noyes, while Mr. Wike, Democrat, of Illinois; Mr. Allen, Democrat, of Mississippi; Mr. Dearmond, Democrat, of Missouri, and Mr. Gillespie, Democrat, of Pennsylvania, who signed the minority report, supported the case of Mr. Rockwell. At 5:15 the house adjourned.

Non-Union Men Attacked.

CHICAGO, April 22.—A gang of non-union longshoremen while at work loading a steamer last night were attacked by a mob. After a slight show of resistance the non-unionists broke and ran followed by a volley of stones, brickbats, etc. A gang of their comrades who had been loading another vessel near by came to their rescue, but were also forced to flee. Many of the workmen attempted to hide in the holds of the vessels they were loading, but they were hunted out by the attacking party. The arrival of a detachment of policemen finally put an end to the battle, not until a number had been seriously hurt.

Two Dead Bodies Found.

DULUTH, April 22.—George Peters, an explorer just arrived in the city from the northern boundary of Itasca county, where he had been looking up lands on the Canadian side, came across the bodies of two dead men, in a badly disfigured state, at a point where the Little Elk empties into Rainy lake. From papers found under the bodies the name of one is believed to be Henry Matthews, of Cincinnati. Near at hand was a Winchester rifle, two small axes and some camp trinkets. The men were apparently about thirty years old.

Traveling Through a Snowstorm.

BUFFALO, Wyo., April 23.—The coronor's jury found the stockmen's party guilty of murder in the first degree, and the prisoners started at 11 o'clock Sunday morning from Fort McKinney in charge of United States troops, and are now en route to Douglas in the midst of a howling snowstorm. As the column left Fort McKinney, a dozen beardless cowboys followed the command for nearly a mile and attempted to crowd up to see the prisoners, but they were kept at a distance and finally returned to Buffalo.

Report of a Battle.

DEADWOOD, S. D., April 22.—Word has been brought to this city that a battle between rustlers and cowboys was fought Monday near Little Powder river, resulting in a repulse for the rustlers, who had been emboldened by their recent victory over the cattlemen. It is expected that trouble will ensue again, as the rustlers are determined to get into the spring round-up, and the cowboys are as equally determined to keep them out.

Disastrous Forest Fires.

WILLIMANTIC, Conn., April 22.—Extensive forest fires have been raging in the vicinity of North Windham, four miles from here. The damage to farmers will be very heavy, as hundreds of acres of mowing and woodland have been burned over.

President's Widow Married.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Madame DeBarrios, widow of the late president of Guatemala, was married last night to Senor DeRoda, of Spain, Archbishop Corrigan officiating. The wedding was the most interesting and picturesque of the season.

This Took Place in Kentucky.

CHATTANOOGA, April 22.—News comes from a Kentucky mountain of a horrible crime. A Mrs. H. rell set fire to her house burning up her husband and infant babe. She then eloped with one Brady, with whom she had been criminally intimate. On the way through the country they were attacked by an enraged bull, and both were gored to death.

A Merchant Mysteriously Missing.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., April 22.—M. M. Scott, a prominent dry goods merchant, has disappeared from his home and all efforts to find him have proved futile. His family suspect foul play, while many of his friends are of the opinion that he committed suicide on account of financial troubles.

Insane Man Suicides.

COLUMBUS, O., April 22.—A suicide occurred yesterday at the Columbus asylum for the insane, the victim being Nicholas Pletcher, from Muskingum county, who ended his existence by cutting his throat with a penknife, partly severing his head from his body.

Not as It Should Be.

LITTLE ROCK, April 22.—The local Methodists and Baptists are at war with each other, the cause being the conversion of a Methodist minister to the Baptist faith. Mud throwing is indulged in to a great extent.

Drawing to a Close.

WASHINGTON, Ind., April 22.—Lawyers in the Lavelle arson case, for burning the court house and records at this place, commenced to argue the case at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. The judge gave them ten hours for argument. The general opinion is that the jury will hang or acquit.
